- 12 Construction shall also include moving construction related
- materials on the job site to or from the job site. 13
- 14 Section 10. Applicability; status of individuals
- 15 performing service.
- 16 (a) For the purposes of this Act, an individual performing
- services for a contractor is deemed to be an employee of the 17
- 18 employer except as provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this
- Section. 19
- (b) An individual performing services for a contractor is 20
- 21 deemed to be an employee of the contractor unless it is shown
- 22 t.hat.:
- (1) the individual has been and will continue to be 23
- 24 free from control or direction over the performance of the
- service for the contractor, both under the individual's 25

contract of service and in fact;

- (2) the service performed by the individual is outside the usual course of services performed by the contractor; and
 - (3) the individual is engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, profession or business; or
 - (4) the individual is deemed a legitimate sole proprietor or partnership under subsection (c) of this Section.
- (c) The sole proprietor or partnership performing services for a contractor as a subcontractor is deemed legitimate if it is shown that:
 - (1) the sole proprietor or partnership is performing the service free from the direction or control over the means and manner of providing the service, subject only to the right of the contractor for whom the service is provided to specify the desired result;
 - (2) the sole proprietor or partnership is not subject to cancellation or destruction upon severance of the relationship with the contractor;
 - (3) the sole proprietor or partnership has a substantial investment of capital in the sole proprietorship or partnership beyond ordinary tools and equipment and a personal vehicle;

Section 20. Failure to properly designate or classify individuals performing services as employees. It is a violation of this Act for an employer or entity not to designate an individual as an employee under Section 10 of this Act unless the employer or entity satisfies the provisions of Section 10 of this Act.

Section 25. Enforcement.

(a) Any interested party may file a complaint with the Department against an entity or employer covered under this Act if there is a reasonable belief that the entity or employer is in violation of this Act. It shall be the duty of Department to enforce the provisions of this Act. Department shall have the power to conduct investigations in connection with the administration and enforcement of this Act and any investigator with the Department shall be authorized to visit and inspect, at all reasonable times, any places covered by this Act and shall be authorized to inspect, at all reasonable times, documents related to the determination of whether an individual is an employee under Section 10 of this Act. The Director of Labor or his or her representative may compel, by subpoena, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, payrolls, records, papers, and other evidence in any investigation and may administer oaths to witnesses.

(b) Whenever the Department believes upon investigation that there has been a violation of any of the provisions of this Act or any rules or regulations promulgated under this Act, the Department may: (i) issue and cause to be served on any party an order to cease and desist from further violation of the Act, (ii) take affirmative or other action as deemed reasonable to eliminate the effect of the violation, (iii) collect the amount of any wages, salary, employment benefits, or other compensation denied or lost to the individual, and (iv) assess any civil penalty allowed by this Act. The civil penalties assessed by the Department as well as any other relief requested by the Department shall be recoverable in an action brought in the name of the people of the State of Illinois by the Attorney General.

Section 30. Attorney General; State's Attorneys. Criminal violations of this Act shall be prosecuted by the Attorney General or the appropriate State's Attorney. The Department shall refer matters to the Attorney General and the appropriate State's Attorney upon determining that a criminal violation may have occurred. In all other proceedings the Department shall be represented by the Attorney General's Office.

Section 35. Contempt. Whenever it appears that any employer or entity has violated a valid order of the Department issued under this Act, the Director of Labor may commence an action

Section 40. Penalties. An employer or entity that violates any of the provisions of this Act or any rule adopted under this Act shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $1,500 for each violation found in the first audit by the Department. Following a first audit, an employer or entity shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500 for each repeat violation found by the Department within a 5 year period. For purposes of this Section, each violation of this Act for each person and for each day the violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct violation. determining the amount of a penalty, the Director shall consider the appropriateness of the penalty to the employer or entity charged, upon the determination of the gravity of the violations. The amount of the penalty, when finally determined, may be recovered in a civil action filed in any circuit court by the Director of Labor, or a person aggrieved by a violation of this Act or any rule adopted under this Act. In any civil action brought by an interested party pursuant to this Section, the circuit court shall award the interested party 10% of the amount recovered. In such case, the remaining amount recovered shall be submitted to the Director of Labor. Any uncollected amount shall be subject to the provisions of the Illinois State

- 1 Collection Act of 1986.
- 2 Section 42. Debarments. For any second or subsequent 3 violation determined by the Department which is within 5 years 4 of an earlier violation, the Department shall add the employer 5 or entity's name to a list to be posted on the Department's 6 official website. Upon such notice, the Department shall notify 7 the violating employer or entity. No state contract shall be 8 awarded to an employer or entity appearing on the list until 4 9 years have elapsed from the date of the last violation.
